

Stand for something

I agree, God gave us five senses and we do not have to be stupid.

We need to get out of that old negative way of thinking.

There is light at the end of the tunnel.

The only thing that makes us different from any one is the choices and decisions we make.

Nobody owes us anything, we have to learn to get out there and get it.

We need to get out of the, "poor me" syndrome. That's the "Poor Me", Poor Me, Pour me a drink, is where that is headed and that is the only way the enemy can conquer us.

I don't know about you but I'm tired of the enemy using the same old tactics over and over and winning.

Time to make a change and do something different... fight until the end!!!!

As I grow in self acceptance I become a radiating center of encouragement.
