

When you are old, black, and they don't wanna come:

Brendella Jenkins of Meridian, Mississippi was going up to bed when her bedridden husband told her that she'd left the light on in the garden shed, which they could see from the bedroom window. Brendella opened the back door to go turn off the light but saw that there were people in the shed stealing things. She phoned the police, who asked 'Is someone in your house,' and she said 'no.' The Police said that all patrols were busy, and that she should simply lock the door to the house and an officer would be along when available. Brendella said, 'Okay,' hung up, counted to 30, and phoned the police again. 'Hello, I just called you a few seconds ago because there were people stealing things from my shed. Well, you don't have to worry about them now because I just shot them.' Then she hung up. Within five minutes six police cars, a SWAT Team, a helicopter, two fire trucks, a paramedic, an ambulance AAAAAND THE D.A. showed up at the Jenkins' residence and caught the burglars red-handed. One of the Policemen said to Brendella: 'I thought you said that you'd shot them!' Brendella said, 'I thought you said there was nobody available!'

Don't mess with old black folks

May you always have love to share, smiles to spare, and friends that care.
